To be perfectly plain, and without meaning to reflect in the least upon any gentleman who has been named, it is now obvious that there is to be a McGraw fight, regardless of consequences." The Fairmont Times comments as follows:

"Reading between the lines of Governor MacCorkle's statement is the thinly veiled threat that since Mr. McGraw insists upon keeping alive the party disturbance in which the Democracy of West Virginia has been embroiled for the last fourteen years, Mr. Chilton will again call his friends to arms and revive the old McCraw-Chilton feud in all its past intensity.
